

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. PREFATORY

In 1900 this library published a catalogue of books in the department of Local History and genealogy, and in 1903 a supplement to that catalogue. Since that time this department of the library has grown rapidly and these lists are now very much out of date. It has, therefore, seemed advisable in place of issuing a second supplement, to re-publish the whole catalogue, including the supplement of 1903 and all books added up to the present date. In the body of this catalogue, comprising the histories of towns, counties, and other restricted localities, and the family genealogies, an abridged or index form has been adopted.

The several divisions of this catalogue are as follows:—

I. State, County, and Town histories, records, etc., arranged alphabetically under name of the place, giving abridged title, author, date of publication and call-number.

II. Genealogies arranged alphabetically under the name of the family, giving author, date, and call-number.

III. English works: Publications devoted to genealogical research in Great Britain.

IV. Heraldry, including certain works on related subjects.

V. Names and their derivations.

VI. Genealogical guides, indexes, and useful bibliographies.

VII. Publications of Historical Societies

VIII. Periodicals of interest to genealogical workers.

The officers of the Grosvenor library are endeavoring to build up as complete and useful a collection as possible of the town and other local histories, especially of the thirteen original states, and to make the genealogical department as accessible and helpful as possible to those using it. Suggestions for its improvement and increase will be appreciated by the librarian.

This department of the library is now located in the room at the eastern end of the balcony. The books are on open shelves and are arranged by states; the counties and towns being placed in separate series alphabetically under each state. This enables the student by a little practice to work directly from the shelves. The hours for this department are the same as those for the main library: from 9 A. M. to 10 P. M. on week days, and from 2 P. M. to 6 P. M. on Sundays.
